THE "FORWARD IN '50 BUILDING CAMPAIGN" of the Church of the Wayfarer was started with a Kick-Off dinner this week in the cafeteria of Carmel High School. In a master plan for enlarging the church property, members and friends of the church are beginning to raise funds to build the first unit. An educational building to serve children and youths of the community will be constructed on the property purchased last year on the corner of Lincoln and Seventh. Teams of workers will call on five families each during the campaign, which will close with a victory celebration Sunday afternoon, November 19.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?

With this issue the CARMEL SPECTATOR introduces a garden column which will appear weekly until further notice. The name of the column and its writer are not new to Carmel, both having appeared in print in 1942.

Edith L. Brattin, a Fellow of the Royal Horticultural Society of London, is a graduate of the California School of Gardening. She is a Carmel resident, and has had over 13 years of practical experience in garden maintenance and landscape work. Our readers with garden questions are invited to write to Miss Brattin, care of the CARMEL SPECTATOR.

By Edith L. Brattin
F. R. H. S.

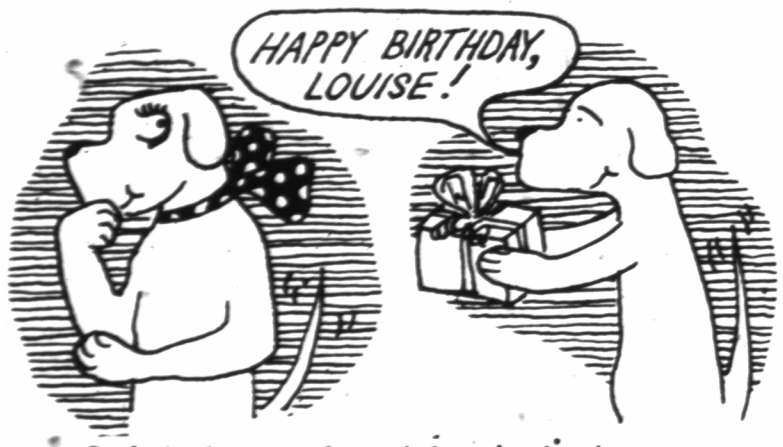
Our gardens are growing better now than they did this summer and many plants are sending out new tender growth. It may be well to take a few precautionary measures in case we have an unsuspected cold spell. The last two winters have caused considerable damage in some sections of Carmel.

There are a few things to remember which may help some of the less hardy plants through a severe cold. Most important, do refrain from pruning soft wooded plants such as suchsias, daturas, pelargoniums, tender shrubs and vines until after all danger of sudden frost is past.

Roses are not considered tender here but in a few cases, two years ago, there was considerable injury to well established roses. If you have had any difficulty in the past two winters do not prune your roses until as late as March. If your garden has not been affected by the cold you may begin pruning roses now.

Geraniums will stand a few more degrees of cold than pelargoniums (Martha Washington's) so it would be a good idea to take a few cuttings from your favorite varieties and put them into the ground right near your established plants. On threatening nights you can cover these cuttings with a flower pot and remove the pot during the day.

Tulips planted late will be more uniform and have better stems than those planted early, so do not think it is getting too late to put in a bed of tulips. I have planted them as late as the middle of December and had them flower right on schedule with those planted in September and October.



Don't be hesitant, Louise! It isn't chocolates, it isn't stationery! It's--yes!--government-inspected horse meat from Jezebel's!

Beach Plan Weathers Another Storm

At Salinas, on Wednesday, at a hearing before a sub-committee of the Monterey County Planning Commission, propositions of property owners and subdividers to change the master plan of the Point Lobos League beach project were turned down.

The sub-committee decided to recommend to the Planning Commission that no changes be made in the original plans for the beaches south of the Carmel River, and it is expected that the state will proceed to acquire the property at once.

Travel Agent Travels

One of Carmel's leading travel agents, Margaret "Peg" Peasley, partner of David Prince, left by air Sunday for a two-week trip to Hawaii. Peg first flew to Los Angeles and then continued by Pan-American clipper to Honolulu. While there the Royal Hawaiian will be her headquarters for side trips to other islands.

Most Stores Closed Armistice Day - Saturday

According to latest word from Oscar Balzer, of the Carmel Business Men's Association, most Carmel stores will be closed on Saturday in observance of Armistice Day. However, it is expected that some gift and novelty shops will remain open.

Oeullett's Son Now Second Lieutenant

Bradley Wells, son of Commander and Mrs. Joseph Oeullett of Carmel, has recently graduated from the U.S. Air Force School at Lubbock, Texas.

Lieutenant Wells is on leave and is visiting his parents at their home on Carmel Point. He has been assigned to the Air Force, Air Rescue Squadron, at Colorado Springs.

League of Women Voters Will Hear Mrs. Heard

A silver tea will be held on Tuesday, at 2:30 o'clock, at the Army-Navy YMCA, El Estero, Monterey, by the Monterey Peninsula League of Women Voters.

The occasion will be in honor of Mrs. Bartlett Heard, of Berkeley, a national vice-president of the YWCA, who has recently returned from Germany where she traveled for the State Department as a visiting expert on women's affairs. Mrs. Bartlett will speak on "German Women Today."

Those wishing to attend the tea may telephone Mrs. Bruce Spencer at Carmel 7-3686.

Carmel Woman's Club Notes

"Flight of Freedom" was the topic of a talk by Howard Pierce Davis before a large audience at the general meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club, Monday afternoon, November 6.

President Anne Vaughan reported the recent rummage sale was a financial and social success. Credit was given to chairman Mrs. James Burgess and her co-workers. Appreciation was expressed to Harriet Adams of the Hour Glass and Oscar Balzer for new articles donated. Local newspapers and radio stations were thanked for their generous publicity.

Carmel Woman's Club gave the use of their clubhouse for a meeting of the Crusade of Freedom. Twenty members of the club secured signatures and more than three hundred dollars for the scrolls and fund.

Two card sections will meet in November: the regular section November 13, and an extra day on Thursday, November 16. Mrs. W. C. Peterson, chairman of the bridge section, is assisted by Mrs. R. C. Merritt, Mrs. R. J. Marr, Mrs. Ralph Goudey and Miss Bessie Lee French.

Mrs. Vaughan introduced the program chairman, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, who introduced the speaker, Howard Pierce Davis. Mr. Davis used as the keynote of his talk the seriousness of the world situation, declaring that "peace is a problem of perspective." This problem presents three values: freedom, security and sovereignty. "The United States," said Davis, "has witnessed the 'Flight of Freedom' during five years of sleuthing in a semi-militaristic state." "Who wins now?" asked Davis. "We cannot win by fighting with boasts and bragging. Spiritual, not material values, will prevail."

A SLEEK LITTLE JOB... Pictured above, as it was parked at Pebble Beach last Sunday during the Sports car racing, is the British Austin convertible. This year the English are shipping more cars than ever before to this country, according to Lorin D. Lacey, British motor car dealer of this area.

HAVE YOU HAD your Silly Putty today? How do you feel? Flying saucers before the eyes--Desuetudinous--are you a victim of galloping frustration or malignant misanthropy? Try Silly Putty. You'd be surprized who does. Take if unable to sleep in water. If that doesn't help

Among the less sensible things has recently pulled out of the hat is the new Mouli Mincer ($1). This thing minces everything but your fingers. It's a French import and you know how mincing the French can be. C'est le gastronomy--groceries to you. Which reminds us that we wish somebody would accidentally stumble into and buy some of those imported English travel accessories instead of all those marvelous dollar ($) items with which you are getting gypped because anybody knows you can not get anything but a sour look from a bellboy for a dollar these days.

And that brings up another unpleasant matter. You hear untutored outlanders walking along the street complaining about how high the prices are at

(I suppose they say the same thing about all those other wonderful shops around town.) Well, it ain't so. Our prices are the same as in San Francisco like, say, at Macy's, and if you think you can cut Macy's prices you better cut your throat. Anyway it's not the prices; it's the taxes.

Local Telephone Strike Situation

When asked to comment on the possible effect of picketing of telephone offices by striking employees of the Western Electric Company, D. D. Muir, manager of Pacific Telephone, said yesterday. "We have no dispute with our own employees. All of our union-represented groups are covered by contracts which are currently in effect.

"The strike involves sales and installation employees of the Western Electric Company who work under contract in some of our telephone buildings and whose representatives have been bargaining with Western Electric in New York.

"There are only 1400 of these in California and less than 1800 throughout the entire Pacific Coast. In using this small group to attempt to tie up telephone service by handicapping the activities of the more than 70,000 telephone employees of our company, the national union leadership seems to have a total disregard for a vital public service.

"We do not at this time know what effect picketing might have here. Dial service, of course, will not be affected. Long distance and other calls requiring the services of operators may be affected if any force shortages result from picketing activities. We will do everything possible, however, to provide essential services."

Rotarians Hear of Our Government's Paternalism and Taxes

Rilea W. Doe, vice-president of Safeway Stores, Inc., Oakland, was the speaker at Wednesday's Rotary meeting. Introduced by acting president Frank Murphy, Mr. Doe made a sobering talk in which he pointed out the trend towards socialism as manifested in the astounding increase in governmental payrolls, number of employees and the enormous increase in taxes.

"One out of every nine persons employed in the United States is a government worker (federal, state or local)," said Mr. Doe. "I wonder if the federal government is not quietly, but expectantly, moving to Cal-

A LEGIONNAIRE SPEAKS
ON ARMISTICE DAY

Our bugles sound "assembly"--now once more
Unsheathe the sword of Faith and dedicate
Its strength to Country and to God before
The pagan millions come to desecrate
Our homes and loved ones with their ruthless hate.

Past glories cannot help us stem the wave
Of madness lest our hearts are unified
By arms, by thought, by ev'ry deed to save
Our free-born heritage, and hold with pride
The liberty for which our comrades died.

Arise, tradition bids us guard our land
From treachery within, and outside might--
Unlimber ev're gun, and train each hand
To speed defense against whatever blight
May come to dim Democracy's fair light.

America and all for which it stands
Can never die--as long as we who knew
The sacrifices martial strife demands
Stand ready, with our sons, to prove anew
Our sacred right to live as free men do.

Stamp Club Holds Annual Meeting

With a majority number of members present, the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club met at a luncheon at Pine Inn, Sunday, November 5, at 1:30 P.M.

President Colonel John R. Wright welcomed the guests and called for the report of the nominating committee. Dr. E. T. Patee of Pebble Beach gave the report. The following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: president, Colonel John R. Wright; vice-president, Leland S. Stallings; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Cary C. Smead.

"The slogan for the new year," said President Wright, "is: Every member get a member; re-enlist; take on another term for yourself; try to sell the club to stamp collectors."

President Wright then named the following committees: membership, Peter J. Ferrante, chairman, Mrs. Cary C. Smead, Captain Raymond S. Gourley; publicity, Mrs. Nora Law, General E. S. Adams; program, E. D. Yount, L. S. Stallings; exhibition, Dr. E. T. Patee, Jesse Martin, Arch Gibson; auctioneer, General E. S. Adams; property custodian, Mrs. Viola R. Bryant; representatives to Council of Northern California Philatelic Societies, General E. S. Adams and E. D. Yount.

Lee R. Powell of Carmel Highlands was welcomed as a new member.

At the regular meeting of the Stamp Club held the next day in the cafeteria of Sunset School, President Wright presided. Secretary and treasurer's reports were read by Mrs. Cary C. Smead. Reports were given by the delegates to the Northern Council of Philatelists held in Hollister November 5. E. D. Yount stated that in a new building at the Sacramento State Fair, one room will be used as a permanent room for stamp exhibits.

The next meeting of the club will be a program evening held in Sunset School cafeteria, at 8 P.M., November 20. Anyone on the Peninsula who is interested in stamps, whether a collector or not, is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Any high school student between the ages of 13 and 19 who wishes to exchange stamps with high school boys in Japan is requested to get in touch with Mrs. Cary S. Smead (7-7154) for further information.

Audubon Screen Tour November 17

The second of this season's screen tours is announced for Friday, November 17, at Sunset School Auditorium, Carmel. Presented by the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society, these screen tours are conducted by some of the foremost naturalist-photographers in the United States. The lecturer for the next tour will be George H. Orians of Toledo, Ohio, whose motion pictures of wild birds and mammals offer a rich experience.

Mr. Orians' subject will be "By Erie's Changing Shores." Lake Erie is the scenic background for this colorful film program, a region Mr. Orians has known and photographed since boyhood. Through his camera he will acquaint us with interesting discoveries there and with the changes that are constantly taking place.

In miles on miles of swamps and in the famous "Dune Country," as well as at the water's edge, we will visit a world of wildlife creatures. Whether among the black oaks, the orchards or the sand bars, newcomers constantly arrive, and others leave. The many ducks, geese, shorebirds and songbirds are in themselves symbols of change.

Hefling-Reynolds Wedding At Mission Saturday

Miss Bette Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Reynolds of Pacific Grove, and Thomas Hefling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hefling of Carmel, were married Saturday afternoon at Carmel Mission.

Following the ceremony, the young couple left for their honeymoon, following which they will reside in Pacific Grove.

AT LONG LAST HE RIDES. For years visitors have felt sorry for our genial "Parking Policeman" Andy Del Monte, as he made the rounds about town marking cars. There have been suggestions that the city buy him a horse or a bicycle, but wiser heads prevailed and a motorcycle was finally ordered. Last weekend it arrived. In the photograph above you see Andy marking Ye Editor's car in front of the new CARMEL SPECTATOR offices, on Seventh near Dolores.

College of Pacific President Speaker Here

DR. ROBERT E. BURNS
President of the College of the Pacific

The College of the Pacific at Stockton, first college to be chartered by the State of California, will stage a centennial banquet and rally for its friends in Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz Counties Monday night, November 13, in Salinas. The affair is a banquet meeting set for 7 P.M. at the First Methodist Church there.

General chairman of a committee of 35 in the three counties arranging the anniversary occasion is Gordon Knoles of Pacific Grove. Carmel members of the planning group are John Farr, Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, J. O. Handley, Ernest Morehouse, and Ralph Zuck.

Principal speakers at the banquet meeting will be Pacific's chancellor, Dr. Tully C. Knoles, a noted western educator who has now been associated with the college for nearly one third of its first century, and Pacific President Robert E. Burns. Burns, who succeeded Knoles in the presidency of the institution in 1946, is a member of the five-man California Centennials Commission appointed by Governor Earl Warren.

Although many notices of the gathering have been mailed in the three counties, reservations are open to all. Alumni of the college, parents of students or prospective students, friends, and the general public interested in the story of California's first chartered college and its centennial objectives may order places. Reservations may be mailed to Willard Farr at 900 Bautists Street in Salinas, or may be made locally through Knoles in Pacific Grove.

To Speak in Carmel

Dr. Burns has another speaking engagement in Carmel during November. On the evening of November 28, Carmel's service clubs--Kiwanis, Lions and Rotary--will hold a combined meeting at the Mission Ranch, at which Dr. Burns will be the principal speaker.

Realtors Leave Town

Such a headline would ordinarily be a sensation in a town like Carmel--if it weren't vacation time for some of our prominent realtors.

The president of the local realty board, Corum Jackson, left Tuesday morning for the National Real Estate Convention in Miami, Florida. On the way Mr. Jackson will stop at his old home in Hunington, West Virginia, to visit his mother and renew acquaintance with old friends.

Also attending the real estate convention in Miami is Mrs. Peggy Porter Marquard of Carmel Valley. Mrs. Marquard will make the trip by air in a special chartered plane with other real estate friends. The group will fly first to Mexico City, where Mrs. Marquard will be entertained by the Dudley Swims of Pebble Beach who are sojourning there. Later, the party of realtors will fly to Havana, Cuba, and Nassau, then on to Miami.

Out of town this week also are Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Le Mon, who are motoring to Los Angeles to visit friends, following which they plan to make a tour through Mexico.

This was a hectic week for the CARMEL SPECTATOR and its new affiliate, the SPECTATOR PRESS. It has been moving time for the SPECTATOR--from its old office on Ocean Avenue to new quarters on Seventh, between San Carlos and Dolores, where the Railway Express had been for 25 years. The SPECTATOR PRESS, a partnership of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gould, owners of the SPECTATOR, and Ralph Erion, well known printer and publisher, is starting from scratch. That means the installation of equipment, certain remodeling of the building, and the usual headaches.

All in all, it has been an interesting move, and we take this opportunity to thank our readers and advertisers who have been in to see and congratulate us. Our office hours are from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M., and we shall be glad to see other friends who care to stop by--with news, advertising, job printing--or just to say hello.

Victor's Insomnia Club Story in Magazine

Alexander Victor, Pebble Beach resident, famous inventor and sometime columnist of the CARMEL SPECTATOR, is the recipient this week of a copy of the magazine "OUR ANIMALS," published by the San Francisco Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. On page 22 is reproduced the article from the SPECTATOR Mr. Victor wrote several months ago about his Insomnia Club.

The introduction to the article states, "If life is very real to you, if you attack problems head on, if you take it neat, you may never join the Victor Insomnia Club. But if you prefer to add a pinch of salt to life, you will enjoy Mr. Victor's whimsey. Maybe it isn't even true; it matters not, the Carmel columnist has the right idea."

Editor's Note: We know the story is true and, as we understand it, there are some new members of the club. We have asked Mr. Victor to write a sequel to his original story. We hope to publish it soon. Incidentally, if readers want a copy of the original story by Mr. Victor, write the CARMEL SPECTATOR, Box A-O, Carmel, and a free copy will be mailed.

Legion Armistice Day Services at High School

American Legion Post No. 512, Carmel, will hold its Armistice Day ceremonies at 1:45 P.M. Saturday, at the High School football field. The program will precede the Carmel-Pacific Grove football game.

The Legion Auxiliary will join in the proceedings, which will include the presentation of the colors, the playing of the national anthem by the combined high school bands and a salute by a firing squad from Fort Ord. This will be followed by taps.

Carmel Work Center Notes

By Carol Tindell

For a sparkling table at Thanksgiving and Christmas, Virginia Blair has designed a set of dishes in gold lustre. With a centerpiece of chrysanthemums, or leaves in bright fall colors, you'll have a festive holiday table that is (excuse the expression) out of this world. There are lots of other Blair designs that you'll want to see for gifts... but these dishes we know you'd like as a holiday surprise for yourself.

Have you seen the Doodle Ring? It's made especially for fidgeters and doodlers...we won't tell you about it. Step in and see it. There are other clever and beautiful rings, pins and earrings made of silver, by Lotriz, that you'll want to see also.

Lots of Harriet Staver's enchanting little creatures came in this week. We have the Blue Danube, which is a beautiful blue dachshund, a delightful pink-striped unicorn, and a fat, flowered pig.

Our shelves are bursting with Christmas surprises of all sorts and sizes...and we like nothing better than to show them off. You know where we are located--at the Seven Arts Court in Carmel and at Pebble Beach.

WHEREVER FASHION GOES--THAT'S WHERE YOU GO--when you wear Hill and Dale shoes, which HOLMAN'S MONTEREY BOOTERY has in its stock. It is such a wonderful feeling to know your feet look right and feel right! You'll be self-assured, poised and proud when you wear stylish Hill and Dale shoes. They are made of the softest calfskin with richly polished built-up leather heels. They are dainty, yet firm--perfect companions for your new fall clothes. You can have a tailored pump in black, blue, mellowed amber or red, with a built-up leather heel; a slip-on with a lower heel; a sling pump, or a closed toe and heel pattern. All the shoes are made out of the softest, best-wearing calfskin available, and they have welt sole construction. The price is very reasonable. I'm not going to mention it, because HOLMAN'S MONTEREY BOOTERY, at 409 Alvarado in Monterey, invites you to step inside their store, look these shoes over and judge for yourself. Remember...you can use your Holman's Department Store (Pacific Grove) charge account, for this shop is a department of that store. Also, don't forget to ask for your S&H Green stamps.

TO ADD DASH TO A WOOL DRESS or grace to your print dress, step out in a luxurious fur-trimmed coat from the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP in Monterey. There are many versions at prices that spell double value. If you like very little flair, there is a nice coat which has straight lines, a collar edged with Persian lamb and nice, flat epaulette shoulders. You can have it in black, wine or green...for only $59.95.

If you want a little more fullness, there is a couvert cloth coat in wine or gray with a yoke trim of Bombay lamb. This has a gored back and costs $75.00.

If you like still a little more fullness--more of a swing in your coats--a green broadcloth coat with yoke back and mouton collar would be right up your alley.

The other coats that should be mentioned are Forest green--one with a yoke back and sheared beaver collar, and the other a fitted broadcloth with full falling silver tone muskrat that is very cute when fastened snugly around the neck. This elegant coat has a shirt waist cuff. All these coats are 100% wool and of excellent quality, so, it's the COLLEGIATE DRESS SHOP at 489 Alvarado Street in Monterey for the fur-trimmed coat in the length and cut that are best for your figure.

TAKE A COLOR FROM COOL GREEN TO WARM RED FROM Dunne's Color-Suited Paints at THE CARMEL PAINT AND WALLPAPER COMPANY and use their symbols as your key to easy color planning. First you choose a dominant color suited to a large area and one that pleases your color sense. This color has a symbol--one of the four suits of a deck of playing cards. For a Go-Together color scheme you select any other of Dunne's Color-Suited Paints that uses the same symbol as your original dominant selection. When you want to accent what you now have--if you want a color to emphasize a wall, an alcove or your home furnishing--select a third color that uses the same symbol as the two colors you have already chosen. If you want to use a complementary color to effect a more daring or stimulating effect, you do the same thing again. See how easy it is--no mixing, no matching! Just as much fun as arranging a hand of canasta.

Also on hand are permanent, ready-to-use Dunne Paints for sashes and trim, for house painting, and enamel for industrial uses and for machinery. So, if your house needs decoration and protection, inside or outside, you'll find exactly what you want at THE CARMEL PAINT AND WALLPAPER COMPANY, at Junipero and Fourth.

FOR YOU CLEAN-CUT MODERNS who can be sentimentally attached to patchwork quilts, whether new or old, the ones made in these times are perhaps prettier than the old-time ones. It would be nice if you could identify the cloth as belonging to Mary's first party dress or Tommy's Sunday suit, but if that is not your lot, you still can have the patchwork quilt that you have always admired. MRS. LYDIA MITCHELL has some beauties for sale at her Carmel home. She has the Pansy Pattern, the Baby Wedding Ring, the Flower Garden, the Seven Stars and the Little Dutch Girl patchwork quilts. The Pansy Pattern is appliqued on a quilted background and the others are straight patchwork on quilted backgrounds. These quilts can be used both on double and twin beds, so if it's that light, cheery, fresh, clean, washable look you want in your bedroom, telephone MRS. LYDIA MITCHELL, at 7-6907. And don't forget...these quilts can become a prize possession your grandchild will inherit.

MAKE YOUR DOUBLE HOLIDAY MENU FIT FOR A KING by going now to the cute little MAC'S POULTRY SHOP--with flowers in front of the neat European exterior--and choosing some of the freshest and most economical fowl in town for your weekend feast. Nice colored roasters and colored fryers, the shop's special this week, are only 45¢ a pound. Or, perhaps you prefer lovely plump broilers, double breasted young hen turkeys or fricassees (the latter for only 35¢ a pound). Mrs. Ladd, who is really "up" on keeping prices "down" has assorted sizes of fresh ranch eggs. AND don't forget that at MAC'S POULTRY, on San Carlos and Fifth, you needn't ever buy a whole chicken! You can buy your favorite pieces by the pound--all drumsticks, all breasts or mixed, whichever way you wish so that all members of the family will be satisfied.

WHAT WONDERFUL DRIVING...WHAT WONDERFUL CARS... WHAT A WONDERFUL TIME! Such was the verdict of nearly all of the ten thousand people who gathered at Pebble Beach last Sunday to witness the first annual Pebble Beach Road Race. Conducted by the Sports Car Club of America, under the auspices of the San Francisco Regional Group, with Edison A. Holt as local chairman, the racing was all that could be asked for by amateur motoring enthusiasts. For several days before the race Carmel

LAST NEPENTHE PARTY of the season, held Hallowe'en night at the popular restaurant down Big Sur way. This interior photograph shows some of the unusual costumes and the party in progress.

Arts Ball

There will be a meeting of participants in the Arts Ball Pageant at 10 A.M. Saturday, November 11. The meeting will be at the Carmel Art Association Galleries, for the purpose of taking pictures and hearing Dan Totheroh outline directions for the pageant. This gathering will precede a general committee meeting to be held at the same location at 11 A.M.

Costumes Compulsory For Arts Ball

By JANIE PARKER

Those planning on coming to the ball must attend in costume--which at first glance may seem a difficult proposition, but it really is not. There will be pictures of various types of costumes (all very simple and inexpensive) in the display windows of Lynn's Ltd., Balzer's, Putnam and Raggett's and Holman's. From the sketches, materials displayed, and with quantities of costume jewelry, anyone can whip up an outfit that will be beautiful, or completely authentic, or funny--for those are the categories in which the prizes will be awarded.

All the stores mentioned are full of ideas and helpful suggestions, and will give you, if you like, names of persons who will make costumes for you.

The pageant will be directed by Dan Totheroh, and the exotic settings are by Bruce Ariss and John Cunningham. The sumptuous banquet, to be held after midnight, will include some rare concoctions to tickle the palate even of the suave Lucius Beebe; while the bar will offer melifluous mixtures of ancient Aztec apple juice and Mayan mouloi.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

The man behind the necktie featured in this week's "Who Is It?" is Colonel Roy N. Hillyer, owner of (and most of the time headwaiter at) Hillyer's Restaurant on San Carlos Street.

Colonel Hillyer's first public appearance was made in 1894 at Hiawatha, Kansas, on a farm (owned by his father and mother, Fred and Nannie Hillyer) which had been homesteaded by his grandfather, a Civil War veteran.

After grammar school and four years at the Hiawatha Academy, Colonel Hillyer attended Ottowa College in Kansas where he studied for the ministry, majoring in psychology and sociology. He was three months short of graduation when he entered the Navy in 1918.

Hillyer (not yet a colonel, of course) fought a more-or-less losing bout with Spanish influenza. Result: the total loss of his voice for five years. He and his family went back to the Hillyer farm, where they remained until 1924 when the Colonel's lost voice returned to him. From that time on up to the second World War, he was in the Gospel Ministry. In 1927, after having returned to college, he was given his degree--with his wife and all five of his children sitting in the front row watching.

Colonel Hillyer had been commissioned a captain in the Chaplains' Corps of the Kansas National Guard in 1924, serving with the 114th Cavalry until 1940, by which time he had been a major for five years. The unit was deactivated in 1940 and he was assigned to the 127th Field Artillery, 35th Division, A.U.S. Other army organizations to which he was later assigned included the 195th 8"-Howitzer Regiment, the 97th Division, the 23rd Corps, and the 10th Army. The latter organization was stationed at Scholfield Barracks, Honolulu, and by this time Colonel Hillyer was really a colonel--a full colonel. After Pearl Harbor, the 35th was stationed at Fort Ord. He thought Carmel would be a good place for his family to live, and had a home for them here by the time he went overseas again in 1944.

In June 1945, Colonel Hillyer was wounded on Okinawa by a high explosive shell, with the result that he spent the following several months making a tour of army hospitals in the western part of the United States. April, 1946, was the month that saw the end of his army career.

Doctors suggested that he buy a quiet little business. What he bought was the Temquatawa Coffee Shop in Carmel which he renamed Hillyer's Restaurant, and which, he says, has turned out to be neither a quiet nor a little business.

Colonel and Mrs. Hillyer's five children are Elizabeth Arthur of Lynnwood Springs, Colorado; Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Roy N. Hillyer, Jr., stationed at Tempe, Arizona, and in charge of the R.O.T.C. program there; Staff Sergeant Billy A. Hillyer, with the Marines at Oceanside, California; Mary Jane Larsen of South San Francisco, and Second Lieutenant Willard K. Hillyer, with the Air Force at San Angelo Field, Texas.

There is no fundamental difference, says Colonel Hillyer, in running a restaurant and running a church. You get the same people--only at times it's more difficult to please the palate than it is to adjust the soul. "I was raised a Methodist and a Democrat," he says, "but early in life I saw the light." He's now a Baptist and a registered Republican. Still active in church circles, he has often helped with chapel services at Fort Ord and has supplied pulpits for several churches.

He's a member of the Lions Club, the American Legion, the Masonic Lodge and the Carmel Businessmen's Association, and he is an officer in the reserve corps.

His two great ambitions, which should be easily accomplished as long as he stays in Carmel, are (1) never to perspire again, and (2) never to ride in a jeep again.

The story of that so-called necktie he is rarely seen without--the one with the silver longhorn collar clasp--is this: At the time of the Monterey

Is a large company "good" for the community?

...meet Henry Bertholas and friends for the answer!

Henry Bertholas, Fall River Mills, started over 40 years ago digging gas mains for one of our predecessor companies. Today he's manager of the Pit River District. Like many another of P. G. and E.'s 16,500 employees, Henry has found time to serve his community—for several terms as school trustee; and as fire commissioner. To his neighbors in Shasta County, Henry Bertholas is P. G. and E.!

Our main job is to see that you have all the gas and electricity you need at the lowest possible rate. You can judge how efficiently we do that job by two facts: the rates you pay are among the lowest in the nation—and plentiful reserves have already been provided by our record-breaking postwar expansion program, with even more facilities being built.

But every business has additional responsibilities: to the communities where it operates, and to their citizens. We now introduce you to six of our neighbors in Shasta County. On the basis of what P. G. and E. means to them and their communities, we think you can judge what it means to you and your community.

P·G·and·E·
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Harry Horr, of Glenburn, rancher and sawmill operator in the northern country for 50 years. Mr. Horr once said: "When P. G. and E. and its predecessor companies came into Shasta County 64 years ago, it helped put a lot of local folks in business, and we're still benefiting by it—just as are the folks who get their power at low rates."

This is Frank Linebeck, Superintendent of Elementary Schools, Anderson District. Few of Shasta County's leaders know better than he how valuable a citizen and neighbor is P. G. and E. For the company pays nearly half of all school taxes that support Shasta County's fine schools.

Meet Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Balma, of Redding. Along with more than 169,000 other P. G. and E. stockholders, they have invested a portion of their savings in our stock. Not only does this investment pay them a return, but helps finance P. G. and E.'s widespread expansion program to assure you a continuing, adequate supply of low-cost gas and electricity.

Here's W. N. Hogg, owner of his own Variety Store in Anderson. To merchants and businessmen, as well as the folks who work in Shasta County, P. G. and E.'s investment of $68,000,000 in property, and annual payrolls of $1,668,000—have meant better business, a more prosperous community in which to live.

"A charming picture of a newly engaged couple" is what your editor thought when he secured this picture. Shown are Arthur R. Nies of Lodi, and Alice Jeane Morehouse of Carmel. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morehouse of Carmel. After the wedding next summer the young couple expects to live in Lodi where Mr. Nies is connected with the Lodi Frozen Food Company.

Mothers' Club Holds Meeting

The Wayfarer Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. William Concolino November 1 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Devotions were given by Mrs. Jared E. Smith, and hostesses were Mrs. Wayne Long, Mrs. Francis Sparks and Mrs. Eugene Harrah.

Speaker for the evening was Dr. Pauline S. Eckman, a practicing dentist in Carmel who has done special clinical work in Guatelema and Meciso and has represented her profession in international conferences in Vienna. Her subject was the dental health of the child, and its relation to general health.

Answer to "Who Is It?"

Centennial in 1946 he put it on for the first time, thinking it appropriate to the occasion. When the Centennial was over, the tie stayed on for a while--long enough to make people start asking questions when he finally took it off. Once in a while even now he'll leave it home for a few days, but each time he does he soon realizes that it's easier to wear the tie than to explain to the Carmel public why he hasn't got it on.

Premier Performance of New Dan Totheroh Play Set for November 17

"Death on Sunday," a new play by Wharf Theater director Dan Totheroh, will have its premiere performance Friday evening, November 17. It will be presented at the Wharf Theater Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings for three successive weekends.

Totheroh's new play takes place in a small Midwestern town in 1907. Its setting is a large, run-down mansion whose inhabitants are Mrs. Millay and her son Robert, forced by circumstances to alter their mode of living, and two boarders who are found to be unknowingly linked to Mrs. Millay's unpast.

Wharf Players Dee Olivetti, Dorothy Goudge, Bee Mauser, Terry Eby, Patty Trevett and Bert Sharp are among those of the cast familiar to Peninsula theatergoers. The set for the production has been designed by stage director Peg Miner.

Producer Kenn I. Smith has announced that plans for raising the level of seats in the theater will be carried out before the opening of "Death on Sunday." In future, an unobstructed view of the stage will be possible from all parts of the theater.

"Streets of New York" Next First Theatre Offering

Again a feeling of nostalgia is pervading the dressing rooms at the First Theatre, Monterey, as the final curtain makes ready to come down on "The Red Kiss Girls." Tomorrow night will be the closing performance of the melodrama, and Gold Coast Troupers will be packing up their make-up boxes, personal props and regretfully hanging up their costumes for the final time.

At the same moment the pulsing excitement of the new show is taking over the historic theatre, as the new cast goes into its final rehearsals and costumes, stage sets, props, and actors assemble for straight run-throughs of play and olio.

"The Streets of New York," directed by Rhea Diveley, opens at California's First Theatre, State Monument, on Friday night of next week, November 17, and will play through the weekend--but Saturday nights only thereafter. Rhoda Johnson is designing and making the costumes, Richard Johnson is stage technician, Kay Knudsen is "lights," and Dene Denny and Hazel Watrous are producers.

No melodrama of the 50's or since has paralleled the dramatic effects, the swiftly-moving exciting plot, or the brilliantly sketched characterizations of the "Streets of New York," which has been a "smash-hit" ever since it first opened at Wallack's Theatre, New York, in 1857.

Odd Fact

In St. Joseph, Mo., someone stole the cornerstone of the old jail, twelve inches square and three inches thick, from the sheriff's office.
